¹ Respondent was suspended on an automatic interim basis on May 2, 2018, pursuant to MCR 9.120(B)(1), following respondent's conviction of one count of assault/resist/obstructing an officer, in violation of MCL 750.81D(1), a felony, and one count of assault, in violation of MCL 750.81, a misdemeanor. On December 12, 2018, respondent's felony conviction was set aside. On December 14, 2018, the Attorney Discipline Board entered a notice vacating the automatic interim suspension, effective December 12, 2018. The parties agreed, and the panel accepted, that good cause exists to make the discipline retroactive to May 2, 2018, because respondent already served a suspension of more than seven months on the basis of his felony conviction that was subsequently set aside.
